CHARLES-TOWN, June 11.

By Capt. Pendarvis in 5 Days from Providence we hear, that about 3 Weeks ago, a (large black Sloop) Spaniſh Privateer, came to Crooked Iſland (one of the Bahamas) and chas'd a Sloop which had juſt ſail'd from thence 'til ſhe got out of Sight, ſo that 'tis not known whether ſhe is taken or not; the next Day the Privateer return'd to the Iſland, and took a Sloop belonging to one Mr. Bullock, who was aſhore there with eight Negroes, which Sloop the Spaniards carried off, and the Day after that, return'd for a third Time, landed ſome of their Men in the Night, and carried off Mr. Bullock and five of his Negroes, whilſt the other three made their Eſcape to Providence and gave this Account.

On Wedneſday laſt Capt. Surrey, Capt. Bazely, Capt. Winter, and Capt. Paſke (with Rice for the Uſe of the Fleet under Admirals Vernon and Ogle,) ſail'd for Jamaica, under Convoy of his Majeſty's Ship the Roſe, Capt. Thomas Frankland.

From ſeveral Parts of the Country we hear, they are likely to have the beſt Crop of Corn this Year, that ever was made here.

On Sunday laſt his Maieſty's Ship the Phænix, Capt. Fanſhaw, return'd from a Cruize, having ſprung his Fore-Top-Maſt and Bowſprit.

By private Accounts from Auguſta in Georgia we are informed, that Capt. George Dunbar (of General Oglethorpe's Regiment) died there after a few Days Illneſs, (being ſo far in his Way on an Embaſſy to the Indian Country) much lamented by all who had the Pleaſure of his Acquaintance: He was an experienced and brave Officer, and an indefatigable Friend to his Country-Men, who were tranſported from Scotland under his Direction, Anno 1735; ſettled at the Darien, Anno 1735-6; and deſtroy'd at Muſa, Anno 1740.

June 18. Laſt Saturday his Majeſty's Ship the Tartar Pink, the Hon. Capt. George Townſhend, return'd from a Cruize without meeting with any Spaniſh Privateers.

The ſame Day a Letter arriv'd in Town from Frederica, for his Honour the Lieutenant Governor, with Advice, that the Mate of the Crawford, Capt. Ford, ſeveral Sailors and other Engliſh Priſoners had made their Eſcape from St. Auguſtine Caſtle to that Place, where they gave the following Account, viz. That the Privateer that took Capt. Ford, and the Snow (which was Capt. Gould, bound hence for Virginia,) belong'd to the Havannah, and was arrived at St. Auguſtine with her two Prizes, the former of which they were unlading when they made their Eſcape, and that they impatiently waited the Arrival of the Sloop with Wines: That this Privateer came from the Havannah with two more and a Man of War Snow, beſides eight Scooners and Sloops under their Convoy, all deeply laden with Proviſions for Auguſtine, after landing which, the three Privateers together with the Man of War proceeded on a Cruize upon the Coaſt: That the Privateer belonging to Auguſtine, ſail'd on a Cruize at the ſame Time as thoſe above mentioned, and had ſent in there a large Sloop, which ſhe took near our Bar, laden with Tar and Beef: And that 600 regular Troops and 200 Marines were juſt landed at Auguſtine from the Havannah, but what Uſe they were deſign'd for was not known. By the ſame Letter we are inform'd, that General Oglethorpe was fitting up a Scooner which he was going to ſend together with his Sloop to cruize off St. Auguſtine.

On Tueſday the Spaniards that were on board the Sloop lately re-taken by Capt. Charles Fanſhaw, were examin'd before the Hon. Col. Fenwicke, whom they inform'd, that when they were taken, there were no leſs than four Privateers and a Man of War cruizing off and on our Bar. That about two Months ago, a Pacquet Boat from La Vera Cruz was loſt on Auguſtine Bar. That the Privateer Sloop to which they belonged, mounted 6 Carriage Guns and 10 Patteraroes, and had 70 Men. And that the Man of War had 150 Men.

June 25. We hear that the Molly, Capt. Murray, which ſail'd from hence the 24th of January laſt for Providence, was taken the 24th near our Bar, by a large (Bermudas built) Spaniſh Privateer, and carried into the Havannah.

On Friday laſt his Majeſty's Ship the Phænix, Capt. Charles Fanſhaw, ſail'd on a Cruize, and at the ſame Time took under Convoy ſeveral Ships bound for England.

We

We hear from Providence, that his Excellency Governor Tinker has order'd two Half-Galleys to be forthwith built for the Service of that Government.

July 2. We hear that the Veſſel lately caſt away on Auguſtine Bar, was their Pay-Ship, and that the Money is all loſt.

On Sunday the 21ſt paſt in the Night, three Engliſh Men made their Eſcape from St. Auguſtine, in a Boat belonging to Capt. Gould of Briſtol, and the Wedneſday Morning following arrived here: One of them (John Lucas) who lately belonged to the Ancona Merchant, taken in November laſt by the Spaniards, gives the following Account, That three Weeks after the Ancona was ſent to Auguſtine, the Privateer which took her return'd from her Cruize, having taken two Scooners bound from Boſton for Cape Fear, one of which was arrived and the other never heard of; after the Privateer had been there about three Weeks, (where each Man ſhar'd 120 Dollars) ſhe ſail'd for the Havannah with her Prizes. Lucas being on board the Privateer was carried to the Havannah in her, where (he ſays) they were building ſeveral Gallies for tranſporting Men to invade the Bahama Iſlands. The Privateer being refitted, ſail'd the 6th of April for St. Auguſtine, with ſeveral other Veſſels (formerly mention'd in this Paper) laden with Proviſions, where being arriv'd and having landed the Proviſions, they all ſail'd on a Cruize, ſtation'd as follows, an old rotten Man of War Snow with 14 Carriage and 12 Swivel Guns, a Scooner and a Sloop along the Coaſt from North Carolina to the Capes of Virginia, and four Sloops along our Coaſt. That the Sloop ſtation'd off North-Carolina had taken off that Place and ſent into St. Auguſtine a very fine large Sloop bound from Boſton for Cape Fear, and alſo a ſmall Sloop commanded by one Gold, bound from Virginia for the ſame Place; of the former they have made as fine a Privateer as ever has been fitted out, ſhe mounts at preſent only 8 Carriage Guns, (but is capable of carrying 14) is commanded by a French Captain, and mann'd with 70 French Men, beſides which ſhe has a vaſt Quantity of Arrows on board; ſhe is ſtation'd to cruize of and on our Bar, and was to ſail Monday the 29th paſt: Of the latter they are alſo making a Privateer, ſhe is to carry 40 Men, mounts 4 Carriage Guns, and to Cruize on our Coaſt in order to intercept our Pettyaugers and other ſmall Craft. The Spaniards who brought the aforeſaid Sloops to Auguſtine, ſay, that the Man of War and Privateers (beſides the Veſſels ſent in there) had taken and ſent to the Havannah 36 Sail, the greateſt part of them were taken on our Coaſt. Lucas further informs us, that the Spaniards ſay, The Engliſh at Carolina are all certainly aſleep, otherwiſe they'd not let us take their Veſſels even on the Bar of Charleſtown. That the Privateer which had taken Capt. Ford, Capt. Gould and Capt. Marther, was preparing to return to the Havannah with her Prizes. That at the Time of the great Conflagration in the Town, the Spaniards at Auguſtine were preparing to ſurprize us, but upon ſecond Thoughts they laid that Deſign aſide.

July 9. The People who have lately made their Eſcape from St. Auguſtine, ſay, that the Spaniards there uſe all their Priſoners moſt barbarouſly, being obliged to work all Day on the Fortifications with little or no Suſtenance.

July 16. Laſt Tueſday Evening a Gentleman arrived in Town from Frederica, who informs us, that General Oglethorpe has fitted out his Guard Sloop, and two Privateers commanded by Capt. Deſbriſay, Capt. Davis and Capt. Foſter, to cruize off St. Auguſtine, and that they were all ſail'd on a Cruize: That Capt. Davis had his Maſt ſplit, one Man kill'd and eleven wounded by Lightning, whereupon he was oblig'd to put back into Georgia.

The ſame Gentleman further informs us, that juſt as he ſail'd from Frederica, News was brought of Capt. Deſbriſay having taken a ſmall Spaniſh Privateer Sloop with 30 Spaniards on board, off Tybe Sound, where ſhe was waiting to intercept the Georgia Pilot.

July 23. The General Aſſembly of this Province having voted Five Pounds Sterling per Head, for every Spaniard that Capt. John Rouſs Commander of the Sloop Speedwell ſhould bring into this Place; and the Merchants and other Inhabitants by a voluntary Contribution having furniſhed him with Proviſions and other Neceſſaries, he proceeded to Cruize on this Coaſt about a Fortnight ago, and Monday laſt brought in a Spaniſh Sloop (Privateer) with 19 Hands well armed, which he had the good Fortune to take three Days after ſhe came out of Auguſtine; the ſame Day likewiſe return'd Capt. Charles Fanſhaw, in his Majeſty's Ship the Phœnix,---With his uſual Succeſs, he having been out ſome Weeks paſt and luckily met with no Enemy. We now begin to hope that Capt. Rouſs's Vigilance and Courage will ſpoil the Spaniards future Gleanings, they have made but two good a Harveſt already; which Hopes would be greatly enlarged, ſhould either the Country or the Merchants fit out two or three Privateers---Commanders more of Capt. Rouſs's Spirit and Activity.

On Wedneſday laſt the Beaufort, one of the Half-Galleys lately built for the Service of this Government, was launched, and we hear ſhe is order'd immediately to be put in a Condition to ſail on a Cruize.

July 30. By the Spaniſh Priſoners taken and brought in here laſt Week by Capt. John Rouſs, we hear, that the Veſſel drove aſhore at the Matanſis by Capt. Deſbriſay, was a Spaniſh Privateer bound to the Havannah, and that two Days after they ſail'd from St. Auguſtine, a ſmall Privateer Sloop with 30 Hands, was to ſail for this Coaſt.

We hear from Georgia, that about three Weeks ago, a Party of 40 Creek Indians went up St. Juan's River in three Scout Boats, and landed near St. Auguſtine; the next Day they return'd to their Scout-Boats, and brought with them three Spaniards Priſoners and three Horſes, with which they were all ſafe arriv'd in Georgia. Theſe Spaniards gave an Account, that there was fifteen Sail of Veſſels in St. Auguſtine Harbour, whereof thirteen were Engliſh Prizes, lately taken on our Coaſt.

FREDERICA in GEORGIA, July 13.

On the 19th of May laſt the Guard Sloop returned from Cruizing off St. Auguſtine having met with nothing.

On the 15th of June, were ſent up by the Officer of Fort William on Cumberland, Mr. John Crawford, Part Owner of the Ship Crawford, with three Men and a Boy, who eſcaped from St. Auguſtine, having been taken Priſoners by a Spaniſh Privateer, with the Ship Crawford, off the Bar of Charleſtown, on the 24th of May; the Cargoe was valued at 15,000 l. Sterling, they had been ſtript by the Spaniards, and eſcaped by getting down into the Ships Yawl, which lay a Stern of the Ship, whilſt the Spaniards were buſy in plundering; and cutting the Rope, ſtood out to Sea; and after much hardſhip got to Fort William, the General ordered them to be ſupplyed with Cloaths and Food, and ſent out the Guard Sloop, and Capt. Davis's Scooner, to Cruize off the Bar of St. Auguſtine, and Mr. Crawford and his Men deſired leave to go on board Voluntiers to have their revenge.

On the 23d a Deſerter was brought up from Fort William, who had eſcaped thither from St. Auguſtine, and gave an Account of the private Signals the Spaniſh Privateers give on their return; and that there is five Privateers fitted out from that Port, of which three were out, and two in Port: He went on board the Scooner, and ſhe being refitted on the 27th of June, they ſailed to cruize off the Bar of St. Auguſtine.

On the 4th of July, a Party of Creek Indians returned from War againſt the Spaniards, and brought a Spaniſh Gentleman Priſoner, who is Couſin to Don Pedro, Capt. of Spaniſh Horſe.

On the 10th Chigeley the King of the Cowbetas, Clawbalgee King of the Hitchetees, and ſeven other Chiefs of the Lower Creek Nation, who with 25 Warriors and 14 Attendants had been here a Month, treating with the General, had their Audience of leave, they promiſed to bring down a great Body of Men in the Fall to act againſt the Spaniards.

The laſt Spaniſh Priſoner gave an Account that their Pay comes up in Silver from the Havannah to St. Auguſtine, as alſo Proviſions in ſmall Veſſels, ſo that we are in great hopes the Guard Sloop will meet with ſome of them.

BOSTON, Auguſt 10.

Saturday laſt His Excellency made the following SPEECH to both Houſes of Aſſembly, viz.

Gentlemen of the Council, and Houſe of Repreſentatives,

I Have carefully conſidered the Bill paſſed by you for ſupplying the Treaſury with Two Hundred Thouſand Pounds in Bills of Credit on this Province.

You muſt be ſenſible, that for me to give my Conſent to this Bill, would be in direct Oppoſition and Diſobedience to his Majeſty's Royal Order of the 5th of Auguſt laſt, which was communicated to the General Court, and printed in the Journals of the Houſe of Repreſentatives, the ſaid Order being founded on the Addreſs of the Houſe of Commons of Great-Britain to his Majeſty, for preventing any Emiſſion of Bills in this Manner.

And from the great Regard I have to the Welfare of this Province, (eſpecially in its preſent difficult Circumſtances) I think it neceſſary to add, that the Paſſing of it, would be for this Legiſlature to exceed the Powers granted them in the Royal Charter, which ſays, They ſhall make no Laws repugnant or contrary to Our Realm of England; I apprehend a Law of this Kind, would militate with the Statute of the 6th of the late Queen Ann, entitled An Act for aſcertaining the Rates of Foreign Coins in Her Majeſty's Plantations in America.

And it would alſo be deſtructive to the Intereſt of this Province, becauſe the Bill provides for the Treaſurer's receiving many periſhable Commodities in the Taxes of the Inhabitants, but makes no Proviſion for their being diſpoſed of, and ſo ſaved as much as they might be.

Nor can I reconcile it to common Juſtice, to iſſue ſo large a Sum, to be drawn in at ſuch diſtant Periods, where no Proviſion is made for fixing the Bills to be emitted to an unalterable Value or Standard; by which Defect it is well known the Bills of Credit that have been emitted for Twenty or Thirty Years paſt, have conſtantly ſunk in their Value, to the great Injury of Trade in general, and of particular Perſons, that are obliged to truſt their Eſtates in other Men's Hands.

Surel

Surely, Gentlemen, nothing can be more reaſonable, than that Bills emitted by any Government to paſs in lieu of Money, ſhould always maintain the full Value expreſs'd in them, or what they may be worth at the Time of their Emiſſion.

Divers Weights and divers Meaſures, both of them are alike Abomination to the Lord, but a juſt Weight is his Delight.

Aug. 8. 1741. J. BELCHER.

On Saturday laſt his Majeſty's Ship Portland, Capt. Hawke Commander, arrived here from Barbados to refit. As the ſaid Ship is fully man'd, the Captain has publickly declared, that he will not impreſs any Men during his Stay here.

The ſame Day our Province Snow, Capt. Tyng Commander, came in from a Cruiſe.

NEW-YORK, Auguſt 17.

Laſt Saturday another Spaniſh Negro was executed here, on Account of his being one of the Conſpirators in the late Plot. At the Place of Execution he made a long Prayer in the Spaniſh Tongue, making uſe of his Beads, with a Crucifix in his Hand, which he often kiſſed, and croſſed himſelf after the manner of the Roman Catholicks. And to the laſt denyed that he was guilty of ſaid Plot for which ſentence of Death was paſſed againſt him.

The Popiſh Prieſt has longer Time given him till Wedneſday next. He has wrote his Dying Speech, which its ſaid will be made publick.

Cuſtom Houſe, New-York, Entred Inwards.

Aſpinwal from Boſton, Man from Newfoundland, Hinman from Barbados, Arrowſmith from St. Thomas, Wolf from Jamaica, Boyd from Briſtol. PHILADELPHIA.

This Day the Honourable THOMAS PENN, Eſq; one of the Proprietors of this Province, attended by a great Number of the principal Inhabitants of this City, ſet out for New-York, in order to embark on Board his Majeſty's Ship Squirrel, Capt. Peter Warren Commander, for Great-Britain.

Yeſterday Morning arrived here Capt. Leſter Falconar from St. Kitts, having been taken by a Spaniſh Privateer on the 3d Inſtant, in Lat. 33. and ſince caſt away at our Capes in a Veſſel the Spaniards had given him to come here in; He ſays, that the Day he was taken, they took a Veſſel bound from Aberdeen to Cape-Fear, and a Day or two after a Veſſel from Barbados bound to this Place, the Captain named Evers; they had alſo a Scooner which they ſaid they took within Sight of the Virginia Station Ship; ſhe was bound from this Place to Cape Fear: He alſo ſays, that the Captain of the Privateer is a very Gentleman-like Man, and uſed them very well.

By private Letters from Charleſtown in South-Carolina, we are inform'd, that that Town is in much Confuſion, not only on Account of the Inſolence of the Spaniards, but alſo from Apprehenſions of Domeſtick Treachery, the Town having been ſeveral times alarm'd by Fire, which too viſibly appears to be wilfully occaſioned by their Blacks.

Cuſtom-Houſe, Philadelphia, Entred Inwards.

Brigt. Carpenter, Arthur Cribb, from Barbados.
Sloop Joſeph and Mary, George Carleton, from South-Carolina.
Sloop St. Auguſtine, William Child, from St. Chriſtophers.
